

Ms. Mónica Holik

Head of Unit, MSCA Staff Exchanges (REA.A.3),
Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions & Support to Experts, Belgium

Mónica Holik has been Head of Unit A3 at the European Commission's Research Executive Agency since 2020, leading the MSCA Staff Exchanges program, which fosters international, intersectoral, and interdisciplinary mobility in research and innovation, as well as knowledge transfer between institutions. An economist specialized in international economic relations, she began her career in Hungary in project management and later served as CFO and Deputy General Director of a pharmaceutical company. She joined the European Commission in 2005, heading the Leonardo da Vinci program supporting vocational training projects, and has since managed units and international cooperation programs in education, including Erasmus, Jean Monnet, Intra-ACP, and Erasmus Mundus, collaborating with partners across Africa, Latin America, and Southeast Asia.
