

Prof. Emeritus Morakot Tanticharoen

National Science and Technology Development Agency (NSTDA)
Thailand

Prof. Morakot Tanticharoen is the Professor Emeritus at the School of Bioresources and Technology, King Mongkut's University of Thonburi (KMUTT), Thailand. She is the senior advisor to the Presidents of the National Science and Technology Development Agency (NSTDA) and KMUTT. She has served as the Executive Director for National Center for Genetic Engineering and Biotechnology (BIOTEC) from 2000 - 2008. She also served as Chairman of the ASEAN Sub-Committee on Biotechnology (SCB), from 2005- 2008. In addition to her extraordinary leadership, Dr. Tanticharoen has contributed to academics as a world leading researcher in the field of microbiology and biotechnology and been recognized at the regional and international levels through several societies and organizations. She was elected as the President of the Thailand Society of Biotechnology (1999-2003) and the President of Thai Academy of Science and Technology (2009-2011)